

COMMUNITIES FOR THE COMMON GOOD

Following a kick-off" evening at the church for our new Communities for the Common Good, each community has set a first date to gather. These groups are a "work in progress" and open to all members, visitor and friends of PCCH. Below are the dates (one has already come and gone!) and even a few locations. If you are interested in investigating the possibility of being a part of this exciting new initiative in the church's fellowship and outreach, please call the church office or contact the lead members listed below:
