THE CROSSING
DONALD NALLY, CONDUCTOR

The Crossing has quickly become one of the most highly- respected choral ensembles of its kind. Their purpose is specifically to perform new and modern choral music. Its critically-acclaimed concerts have included works by many of the most important choral composers of the 20th and 21st centuries, including Nobel Prize winner David Lang. Since the premiere concert in November 2005, The Crossing has regularly garnered accolades acclaiming the beauty and accuracy of its performances.

Tickets for the concert can be purchased online at
