An inclusive community of faith

Sunday, January 23, 2022

10:00 a.m.

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

8855 Germantown Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

WELCOME!

Welcome to the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill!

Whether you're a first-time guest or a long-time member, we are grateful for your presence. There's a place for you here!

See an usher for hearing devices or large-print bulletins.

Nursery care for infants through age 2 is available in the Strouse building – ask an usher for assistance. Children age 3 and older depart from worship for church school.

We encourage you to fill out the black fellowship pads in the pews, to help us to get to know all who've shared worship with us today.

Coffee hour following worship has temporarily been cancelled for the health benefit of all. We hope to resume within the next few weeks.

We send regular email updates about worship, church life, and other events. Please contact the church office if you'd like to receive them.

Please silence all electronic devices.

Find more information about PCCH on page 14.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

“The Church is a diverse community, but its diversity is not just a natural diversity of temperaments or preferences—we trivialize the idea if that’s all there is to it.

It has a diversity of gifts given by the Spirit,
a diversity of relationships with God, we might say,
out of which come diverse perspectives on God and diverse ways of making God’s work real for each other.”

CALL TO WORSHIP (from Psalm 19)

Leader: The heavens are telling the glory of God;
and the firmament proclaims God's handiwork.

People: The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul;
the decrees of the Lord are sure, making wise the simple.

Leader: The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart;
the commandment of the Lord is clear, enlightening the eyes.

People: The ordinances of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

Leader: More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold;
sweeter also than honey, and drippings of the honeycomb.

People: Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable to you, O Lord, my rock and my redeemer.

Holy God, We Praise Your Name

GROSSER GOTT, WIR LOBEN DICH

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

God of everlasting love, we confess that we have been unfaithful to our covenant with you and with one another.
We have worshiped other gods. We have served our own self-interest instead of serving only you and your people.
We have not loved our neighbor as you have commanded,
nor have we rightly loved ourselves.

Forgive us, gracious God,
and bring us back into the fullness of our covenant with you and one another.
Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

EPISTLE LESSON

1 Corinthians 12:12-31a (p. 174)

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. If the foot would say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear would say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single member, where would the body be? As it is, there are many members, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, and those members of the body that we think less honorable we clothe with greater honor, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect; whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior member, that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it. Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? But strive for the greater gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALTER

Psalm 19:1-2, 7-8

PLAINSONG

The heavens declare the glory of God,
and the sky proclaims its maker's handiwork

One day tells its tale to another and one night imparts knowledge to another.

The teaching of the Lord is perfect and revives the soul, the testimony of the Lord is sure and gives wisdom to the simple.

The statutes of the Lord are just and rejoice the heart;
the commandment of the Lord is clear and gives light to the eyes.

CHILDREN'S MOMENT AND DISMISSAL

Children through fifth grade may process to the Chapel.

HYMN (seated)

TALLIS' CANON

Go with us, Lord, and guide the way
Through this and every coming day,
That in your Spirit strong and true,
Our lives may be our gift to you.

GOSPEL LESSON

Luke 4:14-21 (p. 61)

Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone. When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.
People: Thanks be to God.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from "A Brief Statement of Faith" Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

We trust in Jesus Christ,
fully human, fully God.
Jesus proclaimed the reign of God:
preaching good news to the poor and release to the captives, teaching by word and deed
and blessing the children, healing the sick
and binding up the brokenhearted, eating with outcasts,
forgiving sinners,
and calling all to repent and believe the gospel.
Unjustly condemned for blasphemy and sedition,
Jesus was crucified,
suffering the depths of human pain
and giving his life for the sins of the world.
God raised this Jesus from the dead,
vindicating his sinless life,
breaking the power of sin and evil,
delivering us from death to life eternal.
Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

OFFERING

Offering plates are available at each sanctuary door, where you may share your offering as you enter or depart. You may continue to send your pledges and other gifts to the church office or through our website. Thank you for your support.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Edward Elgar
(1857-1934)

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor:
He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind—to preach the acceptable year of the Lord;
to give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes,
the oil of joy for mourning,
the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness;
that they might be called trees of righteousness,
the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified.
For as the earth bringeth forth her bud,
and as the garden causeth the things that are sown
in it to spring forth;
so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.
The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,
because he hath anointed me to preach the Gospel.

THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH

TODAY AT PCCH

IN MEMORIAM

We mourn with the family of Muriel Jackson, a resident of Normandy Farm Estates who regularly attended PCCH events, who died on January 13, 2022. At this time, plans are pending.

COVID/OMICRON UPDATE

The church staff and Return to Church Team have been monitoring the COVID situation closely, and especially as the Omicron numbers increase. We will continually revisit our plan and approach, both to Sunday mornings and other gatherings.

Worship will happen in much the same way it has been happening for the past few months, including all of us wearing masks, with a few adaptations:

- We will return to alternating pew seating.
- We will receive the weekly offering at the door, either as you enter or exit.
- Rehearsals for all choirs (Gallery, Youth, Joyful Noise) will be put on hold.
- We will continue to sing congregational hymns while masked.
- We will put on hold, for now, the participation of member liturgists.
- We will put coffee hour on hold for now.
- Sunday school will continue to happen. We will put snacks on hold for now, as children will keep their masks on throughout the morning.

These steps are in place for the next few weeks in January. As the Omicron situation develops, we will respond accordingly. If you have any questions about that, please be in touch with John Wilkinson or a member of the Return to Church team.

OFFICER NOMINATIONS SOUGHT

The “presby” in Presbyterian stands for “elder,” and Presbyterian churches elect elders and deacons to ordained office to lead the church.

This year, your PCCH Nominating Committee is seeking nominations for people to serve as elders or deacons. Elders serve on the Session and provide overall leadership for the church. Deacons offer particular forms of care and compassion.

You can nominate someone who you consider to have the gifts and calling to serve.

Self-nominations are also welcome. Send confidential nomination to jwilkinson@chestnuthillpres.org.

Stewardship 2022

Thanks to all who have returned your 2022 pledge cards thus far. As of Thursday, January 20 we have received 120 pledges totaling $517,279.00 in commitments. Thank you! Your Stewardship Committee hopes you will return your pledge soon, as it helps in our planning for the next year. You can:

- > Return your pledge during worship on a Sunday morning.
- > Mail a completed pledge card to the church office.
- > Email a confidential pledge to mmcgowan@chestnuthillpres.org

2022 PLEDGE ENVELOPES

Pledge envelopes are on the table in the hallway outside the church office. If you desire pledge envelopes and your name is not there, please let the church office know. We will be happy to mail your envelopes if you are currently worshipping online.

CHILDREN, YOUTH & FAMILIES

SUNDAY SCHOOL UPDATE

Sunday school will be held today. Children and teachers will wear masks throughout.

Nursery care is available for children ages two and under and is staffed by two fully vaccinated, fully background-checked adults.

CHOIR UPDATE

Rehearsals for all choirs (Gallery, Youth, Joyful Noise) will be put on hold.

SENIOR HIGH FELLOWSHIP

Sunday, January 23, 5:00–6:00 p.m.: Riddle and Debate

Sunday, January 30, 5:00–7:00 p.m.: Movie Night

OPPORTUNITIES TO LEARN & CONNECT

UPCOMING SECOND HOUR

Please join us for Second Hour, stimulating discussions on faith and life covering a broad range of topics. All are welcome! We begin at 11:30 a.m.

- January 23: “Four Hundred Souls” Part four. We will continue our meaningful discussion of this important work. You need not have attended the previous session and a copy of the book can be borrowed from the church office.
- January 30: Caring for God’s Creation, Part three—Food. Led by Bill Toffey.

BIBLE STUDY

We will be studying the gospel of Luke using: Luke (N.T. Wright for Everyone Bible Study Guides). We will meet every Wednesday at 11:00 a.m. in the Harris Room.

CHURCH-WIDE BOOK STUDY

The Adult Education Committee is commending “Four Hundred Souls: A Community History of African America, 1619-2019” as a book to read for this program year. Edited by Ibram X. Kendi and Keisha N. Blain, this work is an anthology, written by eighty authors from different fields—novelists, historians, sociologists, political scientists, activists, lawyers, and ten poets; each takes a five year period for their brief chapter. The chapters are divided into ten, 40-year sections, and each section is capped by a poem. A copy of the book for borrowing is available in the church office.

JANUARY IS ANTIHUMAN TRAFFICKING MONTH

This is an opportunity to promote knowledge and interest in the topic of exploitation through labor or sex industry avenues. Human trafficking is a multi billion dollar criminal enterprise that steals freedom for profit and operates on a global and local basis. PCCH, through Social Witness budget, supports Dawn’s Place which operates a local nonprofit treatment facility for survivors of sex trafficking. To learn more about Dawn’s Place, visit www.ahomefordawn.org.

OPPORTUNITIES TO SERVE

SOUPER BOWL OF CARING

If you can't make it that day, please feel free to drop your donation off in the reception room at any time.

We will also be collecting monetary donations on that day if you prefer.

FOOD DONATIONS RECEIVED EVERY SUNDAY AND ALL WEEK

As food insecurity grows, PCCH will continue to receive shelf stable food donations to support several mission partners. You may bring items to the church every Sunday and during the week. NO GLASS CONTAINERS PLEASE. Thank you for your support.
