10:00 a.m.

DAY OF PENTECOST

8855 Germantown Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

WELCOME!

Welcome to the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill!

Whether you're a first-time guest or a longtime member, we are grateful for your presence. There's a place for you here!

See an usher for hearing devices or large-print bulletins.

Nursery care for infants through age 2 is available in the Strouse building—ask an usher for assistance. Children age 3 and older depart from worship for church school.

We encourage you to fill out the black fellowship pads in the pews, to help us to get to know all who've shared worship with us today.

Following the 10:00 a.m. service, all are invited for refreshments and fellowship in Widener Hall.

We send regular email updates about worship, church life, and other events. Please contact the church office if you'd like to receive them.

Please silence all electronic devices.

ORDER OF WORSHIP

Our adoption as children of God, however, does not erase our differences. Instead, that adoption erases the need to claim superiority or inferiority based on these markers of identity.

We are not the same, but we are reminded that our differences are not ways to measure our value in the eyes of God and one another.

Eric Barretto

ORGAN VOLUNTARY

Variations on Veni Creator Spiritus

Maurice Duruflé
(1902-1986)

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
and lighten with celestial fire.
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Anoint and cheer our soiled face
with the abundance of thy grace.
Keep far our foes, give peace at home:
where thou art guide, no ill can come.

Thy blessed unction from above
is comfort, life, and fire of love.
Enable with perpetual light
the dullness of our blinded sight.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
and thee, of both, to be but One,
that through the ages all along,
this may be our endless song:

Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Please stand as you are able.*

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON

Acts: 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every people under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia,

Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.” All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.” But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, “Fellow Jews and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: ‘In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit, and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord’s great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.
People: Thanks be to God.

CHILDREN’S MOMENT

Children through fifth grade may process to the Chapel.

HYMN (seated)

Go with us, Lord, and guide the way
Through this and every coming day,
That in your Spirit strong and true,
Our lives may be our gift to you.

TALLIS’ CANON

EPISTLE LESSON

Romans 8:14-17

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, "Abba! Father!" it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs: heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if we in fact suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (unison)

We believe in God, known as Creator, Son and ever-present Spirit.

We believe God gave birth to the church with the gift of the Holy Spirit—stirring the disciples and us to tell the Good News,
heal the sick, feed the hungry, take care of the poor,
welcome the stranger and be a community of forgiveness and joy.

We believe the Spirit is still moving, still acting,
still turning the world upside down with love.

We believe the Spirit gives us different gifts to use, all for building up the church and showing the world a community of compassion and wisdom.

We believe the Holy Spirit will not be contained in dull, lifeless forms,
but surprises us and empowers us to do new things,
to risk loving, to venture boldly into God's world.

We believe God is at work in the church, to be wind-powered, fire-tinged and Spirit-filled. Amen.

Pentecost and Flowers

The Day of Pentecost—the fiftieth and final day of Easter—is often celebrated with flowers evoking the colors of fire. In some countries that means roses, and this Sunday is often called Rosata Pascha or Rosalia (Rose Feast). In Eastern Europe, the red peony, which is also called “Mary’s rose,” has been associated with Pentecost for over a thousand years. The understanding is that its flaming red petals represent the flaming tongues of fire of the Holy Spirit. In Germany the “Pfingstrose” (peony) is also known as the “Pentecost rose,” and churches are decorated accordingly. English and American churches are often decorated with red geraniums or other flowers of the color of fire. The PCCH Flower Guild follows this tradition this Pentecost Sunday with pedestal arrangements evoking the flames of the Holy Spirit.

Dr. William Mebane and family would like to invite the PCCH congregation and friends to a memorial service for his wife, Marianne, on Saturday, June 11, 2:00 p.m. in the Auditorium, at Foulkeways at Gwynedd, 1120 Meetinghouse Road, Gwynedd, PA 19436

One move later, plus a pandemic, John will undertake these visits over the next few weeks. Each visit will include a four-day “immersion” in the life of a congregation, including worship, special events, committees and interviews. This fall, John will report back to PCCH on what he learned.

Here is his schedule:

Michael Kraus, A Modern Renaissance Man

Bring your own brown bag lunch, light refreshments and snacks will be provided. A $5 donation is requested. Registration required to attend in person.

This presentation can be watched online after 5:00 p.m. on June 9 at:

www.chestnuthillpres.org/education/forum-on-the-hill/

Michael Kraus, a professional musician for the past six decades, has stories to share from his experiences which will captivate and entertain you, as well as give you a glimpse into the life of a true modern renaissance man. From his first break as a musician in the 6th grade, to traveling the world and playing trombone for headliners such as Tony Bennett, Sammy Davis, Jr., Liza Minelli, and many more, he has devoted his life to the love of music and the arts.

PCCH ORAL HISTORY PROJECT (from Brian Russo)

I’m very excited to share with you a project that Jill Bown and I have been working on for the last several months. It is a collection of recorded interviews, oral histories if you will, with members of our church. They are raw conversations, edited only for the sake of time. Though unscripted they are yet substantive, and will hopefully serve not only as a way to get to know our people a little bit better, but also as an educational moment about history itself and the power of vulnerability. The project is called “There’s silver in those pockets”—a quotation from our first conversation with Antonia Kok when describing the value of interpersonal interactions. The recordings will be released over a series of Thursdays, and as the project expands, will continue to do so in bursts of three or four at a time.

Some background: I was with Jill Bown and her family when her father died. The night before, Jill and her brother shared stories with me about his life, and I was blessed with a composite of a beautiful man who achieved a great many things. We gathered again shortly thereafter, and Jill wondered aloud about applying what happened with her father and me to the rest of our community. As in, maybe let's not wait until our loved ones die before we share their stories (or better yet, listen to them share it), but let's do it now! Well, immediately my soul soared, as for years I've wanted to do something combining my interests in photo/video and the lives of our seniors, but I could never quite articulate a proper vision for it. Well, here it is, all thanks to Jill.

Each conversation was recorded in the participant's respective home and living room, using only the available lighting, utilizing my three-camera setup. Each conversation lasted about an hour and a half, which I then edited down to about 12-14 minutes. As stated, none of these conversations were scripted. And honestly, I think it turns out for the better; for the end-product is not a rehearsed documentary, but an authentic and somewhat surprising window into the more significant moments of the lives of our dear ones.

If you would like to share and record your own story, just let me know at brusso@chestnuthillpres.org.

The videos will be released on Facebook, via our Vimeo page, and will hopefully live somewhere on our website accessed by tabs and links.

PCCH PRESCHOOL NEWS

NEW PLAYGROUND COMING SOON!

We are delighted to announce that on June 27 a new playground will be installed to replace our old, dated playground. The new and improved playground will meet current safety standards, be heat resistant and mostly shaded. It will include two climbers and a true outdoor xylophone as a nod to PCCH's music ministry. The preschool will be the primary users but it will also be used by the church's children and youth.

Fundraising for the playground is going well. We will help fund the playground by doing a Buy-A-Brick project. What a wonderful way to honor your children or grandchildren who may have attended the Preschool and/or just support our very worthy Preschool! You can go online to the preschool website, www.pcchpreschool.org and fill out the online form on the New Playground tab. Bricks will be installed on the third week in August. Bricks are $100 . In addition to purchasing a brick, we are also grateful for any monetary donations.

ABOUT PCCH

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF CHESTNUT HILL is a lively congregation that has been serving Philadelphia and beyond since 1852. We have been located on this site since 1950. We are a congregation of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and the Presbytery of Philadelphia.

Our traditional worship service connects with contemporary approaches to questions of faith and life. We support a wide range of mission partners throughout the city and are home to a number of music groups.

Our membership is drawn from the city and surrounding communities. We aspire to be an inclusive community of faith in our work and worship together.
