

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF CHESTNUT HILL PHILADELPHIA

The church's most vexing problem today is how to define itself by the gospel of Jesus' cross. Where is the gospel of Jesus' cross revealed today?

The cross of Jesus and the lynching tree of black victims are not literally the same—historically or theologically. Yet these two symbols or images are closely linked to Jesus' spiritual meaning for black and white life together...

Just as Jesus had no choice in his journey to Calvary, so black people had no choice about being lynched. The evil forces of the Roman state and white supremacy in American willed it.
Yet, God took the evil of the cross and the lynching tree and transformed both into the transcendent beauty of the divine...

~ James H. Cone
The Cross and the Lynching Tree

The theology of the cross as faith's continuous commentary on the incarnating of God's suffering love for the world can only prove itself such by extending itself further and further into the actual. A theology of the cross that contented itself with a theoretical-theological contemplation of the cross of Christ, however spiritually satisfying that might be to those involved, would fall far short... For that aim is not the meaning of Christ's cross in and of itself and as such, but its meaning for and application to the here and now.

By definition, the theology of the cross is an applied theology.
How in this world of the here and now are we to perceive the presence of the crucified one, and how shall we translate that presence into words, and deeds—or sighs too deep for either?

~ Douglas John Hall

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (unison)

Gracious God, our way in the wilderness, guide us, by your word, through these forty days, and minister to us with your Holy Spirit, so that we may be reformed, restored and renewed. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Genesis 17:1-7, 15-16

When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the Lord appeared to Abram, and said to him, "I am God Almighty; walk before me, and be blameless. And I will make my covenant between me and you, and will make you exceedingly numerous." Then Abram fell on his face; and God said to him, "As for me, this is my covenant with you: You shall be the ancestor of a multitude of nations. No longer shall your name be Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you the ancestor of a multitude of nations. I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you. I will establish my covenant between me and you, and your offspring after you throughout their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your offspring after you. God said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name. I will bless her, and moreover I will give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she shall give rise to nations; kings of peoples shall come from her."

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALTER

Psalm 22:24-25, 29-30

Edward John Hopkins
(1818-1901)

My praise is of him in the great assembly;
I will perform my vows in the presence of those who worship him.

The poor shall eat and be satisfied,
and those who seek the Lord shall praise him:
"May your heart live for ever!"

My soul shall live for him;
my descendants shall serve him;
they shall be known as the Lord's for ever.

They shall come and make known to a people yet unborn
the saving deeds that he has done.

GOSPEL LESSON

Mark 8:31-38

Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things." He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM

Francisco Guerrero
(1528-1599)

Hei mihi, Domine,
quia peccavi nimis in vita mea:
quid faciam miser,
ubi fugiam, nisi ad te,
Deus meus?
Miserere mei, dum veneris
in novissimo die.

*Alas, Lord, I have sinned greatly
in the course of my life:
What should I, poor wretch, do?
In whom should I find refuge if not in you,
my God?
Have mercy on me when thou shalt come
at the last judgment.*

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from "A Brief Statement of Faith," Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

In life and in death we belong to God.
Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
we trust in the one triune God, the Holy One of Israel,
whom alone we worship and serve.

We trust in God,
whom Jesus called Abba, Father.
In sovereign love God created the world good and makes everyone equally in God's image
male and female, of every race and people,
to live as one community.
But we rebel against God; we hide from our Creator.
Ignoring God's commandments,
we violate the image of God in others and ourselves,
accept lies as truth,
exploit neighbor and nature,
and threaten death to the planet entrusted to our care.
We deserve God's condemnation.

Yet God acts with justice and mercy to redeem creation.
In everlasting love,
the God of Abraham and Sarah chose a covenant people
to bless all families of the earth.
Hearing their cry,
God delivered the children of Israel
from the house of bondage.
Loving us still,
God makes us heirs with Christ of the covenant.
Like a mother who will not forsake her nursing child,
like a father who runs to welcome the prodigal home,
God is faithful still. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE and LORD'S PRAYER (unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

CHURCH SCHOOL

Church School Online – www.chestnuthillpres.org

Sundays at 9:30 a.m. on Vimeo

Our weekly recorded church school videos now include a welcome song, a worship set-up, and a Bible story with Austin, as well as a yoga component with Amy Raphael! The yoga poses reinforce the Bible story the children have heard—just one more way to help these faith stories “stick” in our children’s minds and hearts. Later this spring, we’ll transition to including videos from church members who enjoy different hobbies and pastimes. Hopefully we will be able to virtually “visit” with painters, race car drivers, photographers, illustrators, fitness instructors, woodworkers, builders, baseball fanatics, musicians, artists, and more! (If you have a hobby, vocation, or interesting skill you’d like to share, contact Austin at ashelley@chestnuthillpres.org to be added to her list of special guests!)

If you haven’t already, please take a moment to follow our Church School Vimeo page. Following us helps others to find our page online (The more followers we have, the more Vimeo will promote our site.), and it will ensure that new videos come to your inbox when they are posted. ## SOULS SHOT PORTRAIT PROJECT

Portraits of Victims of Gun Violence

From the Souls Shot Portrait Project:

Thank you, wonderful members of PCCH, for your donations!

We have received so many, many messages of gratitude from the families and friends of the victims of gun violence that we represent with our portraits. We are bringing attention to the far reaching effects of gun violence on families and communities and we are moving people both in and outside of these communities to work towards changing the current systems that facilitate this violence.

As many of you know, thanks to the Social Witness Committee and the Presbytery of Philadelphia we have been able to hire a part time administrative and digital marketing assistant, Chrissy Ngugi, to help make our online presence robust and relevant during these times when the impact of experiencing our powerful exhibitions is limited. She has also done a fabulous job of organizing the project to make it most effective. She is amazing!

So THANK YOU, again, to all of you who have helped keep the Souls Shot Portrait Project going. Artists are already at work on the next group of portraits.

If you have not yet donated, but would like to, there is a fundraising campaign on facebook which can be accessed by going to the Souls Shot Portrait Project page, or you can donate through our website, soulshotportraitproject.org, or by donating to PCCH and indicating that your donation is for the Souls Shot Portrait Project.
