10 a.m.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

8855 Germantown Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

WELCOME!

Welcome to the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill!

Whether you're a first-time guest or a longtime member, we are grateful for your presence. There's a place for you here!

See an usher for hearing devices or large-print bulletins.

Nursery care for infants through age two is available in the Strouse building—ask an usher for assistance. Children who are three are encouraged to attend Godly Play but are welcome to remain in the nursery at parental discretion.

Children's Praise Packs to aid with worship participation are available in the narthex. Please return these after worship.

All children in attendance are invited to attend Sunday School, which takes place immediately after the Children's Message. Please use the QR code to fill out a brief safety waiver for your child.

We encourage you to fill out the black friendship pads in the pews, to help us to get to know all who've shared worship with us today.

Following the 10 a.m. service, all are invited for refreshments and fellowship in Widener Hall.

We send regular email updates about worship, church life, and other events. Please contact the church office if you'd like to receive them.

Please silence all electronic devices.

Find more information about PCCH on page 10.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Habakkuk 2:1-3

I will stand at my watchpost, and station myself on the rampart; I will keep watch to see what he will say to me, and what he will answer concerning my complaint. Then the Lord answered me and said: Write the vision; make it plain on tablets, so that a runner may read it. For there is still a vision for the appointed time; it speaks of the end, and does not lie. If it seems to tarry, wait for it; it will surely come, it will not delay.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.
People: Thanks be to God.

CHILDREN'S MOMENT AND DISMISSAL

*Children through 8th grade depart for church school in the Strouse building.
Joyful Noise and Youth Choir will not rehearse today.
Parents, please pick up your children after church school today.*

HYMN (seated)

TALLIS' CANON

Go with us, Lord, and guide the way
Through this and every coming day,
That in your Spirit strong and true,
Our lives may be our gift to you.

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON

John 20:24-29

But Thomas (who was called the twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe."

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

Doubting Your Doubts

We Walk by Faith and Not by Sight

DUNLAP'S CREEK

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty. From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

OFFERING

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

C. V. Stanford

Alleluia! O sons and daughters of the King, whom heavenly hosts in glory sing,
today the grave has lost its sting! Alleluia!

That Easter morn, at break of day,
the faithful women went their way to seek the tomb where Jesus lay. Alleluia!

An angel clad in white they see,
who sits and speaks unto the three,
"Your Lord doth go to Galilee." Alleluia!

That night the apostles met in fear;
among them came their master dear and said, "My peace be with you here." Alleluia!

"My pierced side, O Thomas, see,
and look upon my hands, my feet;
not faithless but believing be." Alleluia!

How blest are they who have not seen and yet whose faith has constant been,
for they eternal life shall win. Alleluia!

On this most holy day of days,
to God your hearts and voices raise.
In laud, and jubilee, and praise. Alleluia!
Amen.

COVER ART curated by Rebecca Thornburgh

Caravaggio, The Incredulity of St. Thomas, 1602, oil on canvas, Sanssouci, Potsdam.

Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio (1571-1610) was an Italian painter who spent most of his working life in Rome. Seen as a preeminent master of the Baroque era, the artist's distinctive style combined realistic observation of the human state, both physical and emotional, with a dramatic use of lighting known as chiaroscuro. In this work Thomas the unbeliever is depicted as a peasant, dressed in a robe torn at the shoulder and with dirt under his fingernails. The light falling on the figure of Christ emphasizes his physicality and at the same time suggests his divinity and significance to the viewer. Caravaggio's masterful use of chiaroscuro creates a narrative through line—the shadows (representing doubt) sweep over St. Thomas, but as he touches Christ he is drawn into the light.

THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH

HAPPENING AT PCCH

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR NOMINATING COMMITTEE

The Pastor Nominating Committee (PNC) would like to update the congregation on our recent activities regarding the search for our new pastor and head of staff.

The months of February and March have been very busy for the PNC. After carefully reviewing applications and sermons, we chose several candidates to participate in a screening interview with two members of the PNC. Following this step, we identified five candidates to proceed to panel interviews with the whole PNC. After thoughtful consideration and discernment, we've narrowed our current selection down to three. Now we are in the midst of checking their references, clearing them via the Presbytery, and reaching out to community members who are familiar with our candidates in diverse contexts to gain further insight.

The next step will be to schedule visits to each candidate's home congregation. These visits will afford small groups of PNC members the opportunity to witness them preach in person, observe their interactions with their community, and spend valuable time with them and their families.

Once we have completed our visits, we will coordinate with Presbytery leadership to schedule "neutral pulpits" with our top candidates, where they will visit our area, preach in a neighboring church with the PNC in attendance, and spend time with the PNC and PCCH staff.

In light of Craig's next steps, we acknowledge that it may feel we are beginning another period of uncertainty, but please know that God's timing is truly perfect. While it is important to remember that this is a process of mutual discernment, and that we will not shift our approach to rush toward a compromise because of the circumstances, we are also excited to have some incredible candidates, and we are confident that we will come to unanimous and enthusiastic agreement about our new church leadership in due course.

As a committee, we have been heartened to realize and recognize the strength of our church's reputation and congregation in the reflections of our partners in the Presbytery, our many valuable referral sources, and our candidates. For all of these reasons, please continue to keep the PNC in your prayers as we continue the discernment process.

PCCH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CONGREGATION

Sunday, April 28, 2024 immediately following worship

All members of the PCCH congregation are encouraged to stay after worship to attend this year's very important Annual Meeting to receive a copy of the Annual Report, to respond to the Nominating Committee's slate of candidates for church officers, and to vote on the revisions to the PCCH Bylaws. If you have any questions or concerns, please speak with Dr. Barnes or call the church office.

PCCH WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY

We meet on Wednesdays at 10:30 a.m. in the Harris room. This Wednesday, April 24, Dr. Craig Barnes will be leading the discussion which will focus on the biblical text used for next Sunday's worship service. The reading is 1 John 4:7-21. All are welcome.

END GUN VIOLENCE ADVOCACY DAY—PENNSYLVANIA STATE CAPITOL

Tuesday, May 7

The Social Witness Committee understands and appreciates the controversy implicit in the topic of gun control and common-sense solutions to reduce gun violence. Our partners at West Kensington Ministry are best acquainted with the fallout from violence, literally on their steps. WKM has taken a leadership role in an effort to reduce gun violence and are asking us to join them with this event.

Transportation is being arranged to the Capitol; once there, attendees will meet with legislators and rally at the close of the day. Please give some consideration to joining this effort. Visit tinyurl.com/4k9vv9yc for more information, reach out to Rev. Adan Mairena (adan@westkensingtonministry.com), or see any member of the Social Witness Committee with your questions.

SUPPORT WEST KENSINGTON MINISTRY—ANNUAL GOLF OUTING MAY 13

The Sixth Annual West Kensington Ministry Golf Outing is approaching! Make plans now to play, volunteer, or support this great event that benefits one of our mission partners; WKM is a faith community supporting the human potential of an inner-city community. This year’s outing tees off on Monday, May 13 at 9:45 a.m. at Five Ponds Golf Club in Warminster, and promises more of the golf, fun, and camaraderie that has become the Annual WKM Golf Outing. The golfer donation amount is $180 per person and covers lunch, green fees and cart, putting contest, hole prizes, door prizes, post-tournament reception—all for a fun day to benefit a critical urban ministry.

In addition to golf, there are also many opportunities to participate in this benefit event, including hole sponsorships, lunch, reception, and program sponsorships, or donation of prizes or silent auction items. Cash donations are also welcomed. Check the Golf Outing flyer on the bulletin boards for details. You can register, sponsor or donate to the outing by clicking on the green “Golfer Registration” icon near the bottom of the homepage at westkensingtonministry.com. Your support in the past has been both generous and critical to enabling WKM to physically, spiritually, and intellectually impact the lives of its neighbors and be a vital and relevant spiritual presence in the West Kensington community. If you have any questions, please reach out to Jeff Podraza (jeffpodraza@gmail.com).
