SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

8855 Germantown Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

WELCOME!

Welcome to the Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill!

Whether you're a first-time guest or a long-time member, we are grateful for your presence. There's a place for you here!

See an usher for hearing devices or large-print bulletins.

Nursery care for infants through age 2 is available in the Strouse building—ask an usher for assistance. Children who are 3 are encouraged to attend Godly Play but are welcome to remain in the nursery at parental discretion.

Children's "Praise Packs" to aid with worship participation are available in the narthex. Please return these after worship.

We encourage you to fill out the black fellowship pads in the pews, to help us to get to know all who've shared worship with us today.

Following the 10 a.m. service, all are invited for refreshments and fellowship in Widener Hall.

We send regular email updates about worship, church life, and other events. Please contact the church office if you'd like to receive them.

Please silence all electronic devices.

LOBE DEN HERREN

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

O God, forgive my fallen countenance and soul grown dreary, as if I did not live in the mystery of thy salvation. Thou hast given so much to me, give one thing more—a grateful heart; not thankful when it pleases me, as if thy blessings had spare days, but such a heart whose pulse may be thy praise

George Herbert (d. 1663)

Please stand as you are able.*

SILENT CONFESSION

KYRIE ELEISON

Craig Phillips
(b. 1961)

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (unison)

Lord our God,
your word is a lamp to our feet and a light to our path.
Give us grace to receive your truth in faith and love,
that we may be obedient to your will
and live always for your glory;
through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Ecclesiastes 9:7-10

Go, eat your bread with enjoyment, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has long ago approved what you do. Let your garments always be white; do not let oil be lacking on your head. Enjoy life with the wife whom you love, all the days of your vain life that are given you under the sun, because that is your portion in life and in your toil at which you toil under the sun. Whatever your hand finds to do, do with your might; for there is no work or thought or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol, to which you are going.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALTER

Psalm 147:1-2, 5-10

Peter Hallock
(1924-2014)

Choir: Antiphon

Congregation: Antiphon

Hallelujah! How good it is to sing praises to our God!
How pleasant it is to honor him with praise!

The Lord rebuilds Jerusalem;
He gathers the exiles of Israel.

Great is our Lord and mighty in power;
there is no limit to his wisdom.

The Lord lifts up the lowly,
but casts the wicked to the ground.

Congregation: Antiphon

Sing to the Lord with thanksgiving;
make music to our God upon the harp.

He covers the heavens with clouds and prepares rain for the earth.

He makes grass to grow upon the mountains and green plants to serve mankind.

He provides food for flocks and herds,
and for the young ravens when they cry.

Congregation: Antiphon

CHILDREN'S MOMENT AND DISMISSAL

*Children through 8th grade depart for church school in the Strouse building.
Joyful Noise and Youth Choir will not rehearse today.
Parents, please pick up your children after worship.*

HYMN (seated)

TALLIS' CANON

Go with us, Lord, and guide the way
Through this and every coming day,
That in your Spirit strong and true,
Our lives may be our gift to you.

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON

Philippians 4:8-9

Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Leader: Holy wisdom, holy word.

People: Thanks be to God.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever.
Amen.

COVER ART curated by Rebecca Thornburgh. Edward Hopper, Pennsylvania Coal Town, 1947. One of America's most renowned artists, Hopper (1882-1967) is one of America's most renowned artists, widely known for his oil paintings, but equally proficient as a watercolorist and printmaker in etching. Praised for "complete verity" in the America he portrayed, Hopper created subdued drama out of commonplace subjects layered with a poetic meaning, inviting narrative interpretations. Although his realist work is known for its expert composition, Hopper's studies of Early Impressionism as a young man in Paris created the foundation for his evocative handling of light, shadow, and color. Among his best-known paintings are New York Movie (1939) and Nighthawks (1942). Here, in this relatively late, lesser known work depicting the distant gaze of a solitary man who pauses while raking leaves outside his home, Hopper conveys a profound stillness through light and shadow.

FORUM ON THE HILL (recorded from February 8)

Rebecca Yamin, Digging in the City of Brotherly Love, Stories from Philadelphia Archaeology

The recorded presentation is now online here:

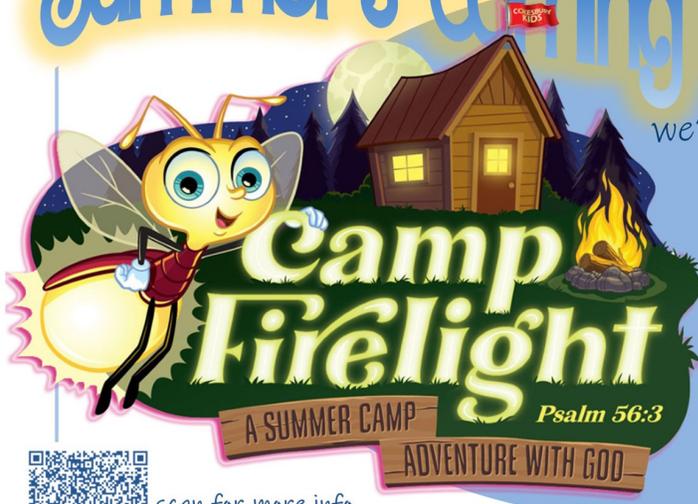

chestnuthillpres.org/education/forum-on-the-hill/

Historic Philadelphia has long yielded archaeological treasures from its past. Excavations required by the National Historic Preservation Act have recovered pottery shards, pots, plates, coins, bones, and other artifacts relating to early life in the city. Rebecca discussed how we continue to use archaeology to learn about and understand people from the past. She talked about several major discoveries from recent finds including unmarked early eighteenth-century burial grounds, one of which associated with the first African Methodist Episcopal (AME) Church, in the oldest part of the city; a 19th-century working-class neighborhood built along the path of what is now Route I-95 and was once home to Native American life; and the remains of two taverns found on the site of the current Museum of the American Revolution. She also discussed the research and state-of-the-art techniques used to study these exciting discoveries.

Rebecca Yamin is a historical archaeologist specializing in urban archaeology and the former director of the Philadelphia branch office of John Milner Associates, Inc., a company that specialized in historic preservation and cultural resource management.
